Photo exhibition pays tribute to those 'Missing' since start of Civil War

BEIRUT: Well over 500 people mobilized at UNESCO Palace Thursday evening for the opening of "Missing," a photo exhibition assembled by UMAM Documentation and Research. A constellation of celebrities were on hand for the event, including Hansjorg Haber, ambassador of the Federal Republic of Germany in Lebanon, and Alex Boraine, the former vice president of South Africa's Truth and Reconciliation Commission – both of whom delivered addresses – and Charge d'Affaires of the American Embassy in Lebanon Michele Sison.
